COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

V. CALL TO ORDER

Mr. Flanagan called the Committee of the Whole to order at 9:48 a.m.

VI. PRESENTATION ON SCHOOLS BEATING THE ODDS

Dr. Sally Vaughn, Deputy Superintendent and Chief Academic Officer; Dr. Joseph Martineau, Director, Bureau of Assessment and Accountability; and Dr. Venessa Keesler, Manager, Evaluation Research and Accountability; presented Schools Beating the Odds.

Dr. Vaughn said there are some schools that are beating the odds based on a comparison of two studies showing how similar schools performed. She said the schools being profiled beat the odds in terms of student outcomes given the context in which the schools operate. She said the lists will be released later in the week, and schools should be proud to be on either list.

A PowerPoint presentation was shown.

VII. PRESENTATION ON SCHOOL DISTRICTS' DEFICIT STATUS

Ms. Carol Wolenberg, Deputy Superintendent; Mr. Dan Hanrahan, Director, State Aid and School Finance; and Jeff Kolb, Financial Analyst; presented on School Districts' Deficit Status.

Ms. Wolenberg said there is evidence that the overwhelming majority of districts have been able to manage their finances and maintain a positive fund balance in very difficult times.

Mr. Hanrahan said in 2010, Michigan had 551 local educational agencies, 240 public school academies, and 57 intermediate school districts for a total of 848 education entities. He said of these entities, 95%, or 805, had a positive fund balance as of June 30, 2010. He said this included 515 local educational agencies, 233 public school academies, and 57 intermediate school districts.

Mr. Kolb reviewed the information which is accessible through the Budget and Salary/Compensation Transparency Reporting icon located on every school district website.

A PowerPoint presentation was shown.

VIII. PRESENTATION ON LIBRARY OF MICHIGAN AND MICHIGAN ELECTRONIC LIBRARY (MeL)

Ms. Carol Wolenberg, Deputy Superintendent; Ms. Nancy Robertson, State Librarian; Ms. Deb Biggs Thomas, Michigan Electronic Library Coordinator; and Ms. Barbara Fardell, Educational Technology; presented on the Library of Michigan including a demonstration on the Michigan Electronic Library (MeL).

Ms. Robertson said the Library of Michigan serves all branches of state government and all types of Michigan libraries, as well as collecting and maintaining the public record of the state. She said the Library of Michigan programming also promotes third grade reading proficiency and career and college readiness of K-12 students via the Michigan Electronic Library (www.mel.org), Michigan Reads!, summer reading, the SL21 benchmarking recognition program for school libraries and media centers.

A PowerPoint presentation was shown.
